

Public Information

The Right to Information Act, 2005 (No. 22 of 2005) has been enacted by the Parliament and has come into force from 15 June, 2005. This Act intends to set out the practical regime of Right to Information for citizens to enable them to access the information under the control of public authority in order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of such authority. Section 2(h) of the Act defines “public authority” as any authority or body or institution of self-governance established or constituted by or under the constitution or by law made by the Parliament or any state legislature or by notification issued by the appropriate government. It includes body owned, controlled or substantially financed by the government.

The applications under the RTI Act along with a postal order/demand draft for Rs. 10.00 obtained in favour of Principal, M E S Asmabi College, may be sent to the Public Information Officer (PIO) or handed over in college office during working hours. Copies of documents will be charged according to the rate fixed by the State Information Commission, Kerala.
