Easing the Path for Mr. Shaji K. Babu In a heartwarming display of support, the Alumni Association stepped forward to alleviate the financial burdens of Mr. Shaji K. Babu. The association cleared his liabilities at Poovathumkadav Bank, exemplifying the commitment to stand by and uplift people in times of need.

Koode Musical Event for purchasing land for students

On the evening of 28 th September 2018, the Alumni Association orchestrated a soulful musical night, "Koode," in collaboration with the College Union. The primary objective was to raise funds for a compassionate cause – the purchase of land for three deserving students of our college. To bring this event to life, a student choir was formed, showcasing the diverse musical talents within our institution. The singers, representing the vibrant spirit of our almatmater, came up with captivating performances.

The charitable initiative proved to be a resounding success, as the event garnered an impressive sum of 9.5 lakhs. The raised funds were promptly directed towards fulfilling a crucial need – the acquisition of land for three students facing financial constraints. The Alumni Association, through this philanthropic endeavor, demonstrated a commitment to empowering the future of our institution by supporting those in need. The Koode Musical Night stands as a harmonious memory, not only for its melodious performances but for the lasting impact it had on the lives of our fellow students.

In conclusion, the Alumni Association of MES Asmabi College, P. Vemballur, has demonstrated a profound commitment to community service through a range of activities. From recognizing local heroes involved in flood relief to providing financial aid during personal crises and contributing to the well-being of differently-able students, the Association's initiatives exemplify the spirit of compassion and social responsibility. The cancer survey and diagnosis camp further underscore the Association's dedication to promoting health awareness within the community. These endeavors collectively reflect the prominent role that the Alumni Association plays beyond the confines of academia, leaving an indelible mark on the community it serves.
