N-LIST Training for Students – Digital Library and Resources Usage

Title of the Program : N-LIST Training for Students – Digital Library and Resources Usage

Name of the Coordinator : Ms. Farhana Nasar K

Organizing Department/Cell: Department of Psychology

Date of the Program :6th & 7th December 2022

Resource Person/s : Ms. Saliha (Librarian)

Program Objectives:

The aim of the program was to provide training on using the N-LIST digital library and scholarly resources and to enable students to access and utilize e-resources for their academic needs.

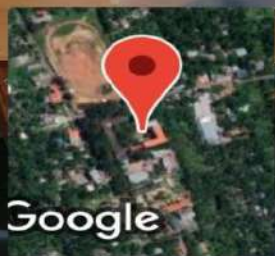

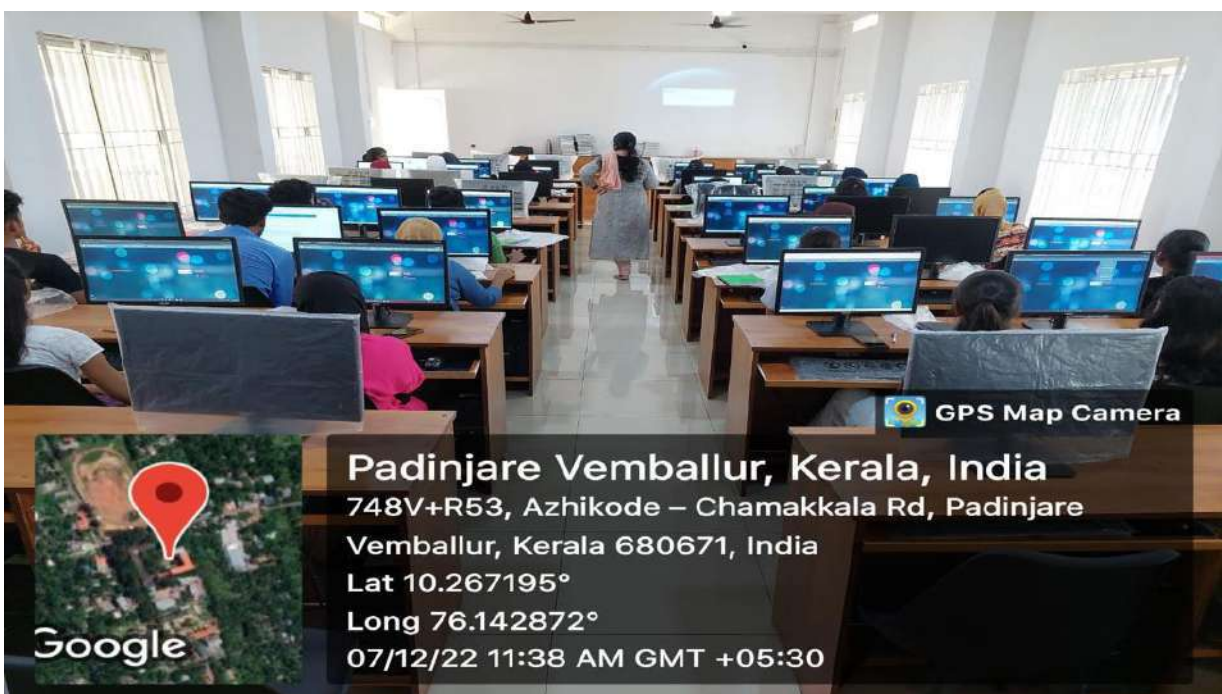

Report of the Program:

The program, titled "N-LIST Training for Students – Digital Library and Resources Usage," aimed to familiarize participants with the National Library and Information Services Infrastructure for Scholarly Content (N-LIST) project. N-LIST is a collaborative effort between the e-ShodhSindhu Consortium, INFLIBNET Centre, and the INDEST-AICTE Consortium, IIT Delhi, which provides access to e-resources for academic institutions. The program explained how N-LIST enables cross-subscription to e-resources from different consortia, such as INDEST-AICTE and e-ShodhSindhu, and offers access to selected e-resources for colleges. Participants learned how to authenticate themselves as authorized users to access and download articles directly from publishers' websites.

Ms. Saliha, the librarian, conducted workshops to guide students on using the digital library and addressed their queries. Ms. Farhana Nasar K, an assistant professor in the Psychology department, coordinated the program and delivered a vote of thanks.

Program Outcomes:

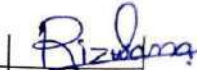

It enhanced knowledge and skills in utilizing N-LIST resources and improved accessibility to e-resources for academic and research purposes. The Session also empowered the students, faculty, and researchers with digital library proficiency.
