Diploma in GST and TALLY 2021-22

Programme Specific Outcomes:

1. Students will gain in-depth knowledge of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws, regulations, and compliance requirements.

2. Students will be proficient in using Tally software for GST compliance, including generating GST returns, maintaining records, and filing returns.

3. Students will be able to handle GST-related transactions, calculations, and documentation effectively.

4. Students will be equipped to provide GST consultancy services or work as GST practitioners in various organizations.

5. Students will be able to analyze and interpret financial statements, reports, and data generated from Tally software for effective decision-making.