

International Webinar on Conservation and Right debate series – 10th – 20th October 2020

In this era of climate change and pandemic, it has been proved that the resource conservation practices of indigenous people are very vital. This conservation and right debate series brings up discourses on historical and contemporary understanding of conservation and how it interacts with the right question. The webinar brought out the discussions from several disciplines with the eminent resource persons C.R.Bijoy, Madhu Sarin, Pramod G Krishnan, Dr. S. Faizi, Dr. Aparna Watve, Mrs. Poorva S Joshi, Adv. Shomona Khanna and Dr. Amitha Bachan KH. They talked about the historical and conceptual perspective of conservation, social justice and law, sustainability, implementation of FRA in neoliberal developmental space. Nearly 100 participants in each day attended the webinar with fruitful discussion.
