CLIMATE CHANGE RESILIENCE: VIEWS FROM ECONOMICS AND ENVIRONMENT

14th & 15th February 2019

The International Conference on Climate Change, centered around the theme "Climate Change Resilience: Views from Economics and Environment," took place on February 14th and 15th, 2019. Hosted by the PG Dept of Economics at MES Asmabi College, in collaboration with the Directorate of Climate Change, Government of Kerala, and the Dept of Economics, John Mathai Centre, University of Calicut, the event marked a significant gathering.

Dr. Dharmarajan Adatt, Hon Vice Chancellor of the University of Sanskrit, Kalady, inaugurated the conference. Smt. Dhanya.K., a faculty member in the Dept of Economics, extended a warm welcome. Ajims .P. Mohammed, Principal MES Asmabi College, delivered the Presidential Address, emphasizing the importance of addressing climate change challenges. The Vote of Thanks was expressed by Sri.Sanand.C., Head of the Dept of Political Science, acknowledging the collaborative efforts that contributed to the success of the conference.

Distinguished Plenary Lectures were delivered by Dr. Achmad Gusman Siswandi, Senior Lecturer and Researcher from the Faculty of Law at Universitas Padjadjaran, Indonesia, and Dr. Kushum Shakya, Professor at the Central Department of Economics, Tribhuvan University, Kathmandu, Nepal. Their insights enriched discussions on the intersection of climate change, economics, and environment. The conference also featured a keynote speech by Dr. Shabeer K.P., Assistant Professor at Government College, Kodencherry, providing additional perspectives on the subject. The event served as a valuable platform for interdisciplinary dialogue and collaboration in addressing the urgent issues of climate change resilience.
