

Report:

The Thanal Charity Program, organized by the Department of Economics at MES Asmabi College, P. Vemballur, took place on 18 October 2023. The event aimed to support underprivileged community members and foster a spirit of social responsibility among students and faculty.

The program commenced with a welcome speech by Shanil Kumarayyan, who set the tone for the day's proceedings. This was followed by the presidential address from Dr. Hazeena, HOD of the Department of Economics, who emphasized the significance of community engagement and the department's commitment to social welfare.

The event was officially inaugurated by K.R. Ashokan, the Panchayath President of P. Vemalloor Grama Panchayath. In his inaugural speech, he highlighted the importance of charitable activities and praised the college's initiative in organizing such a meaningful event.

The inauguration was followed by felicitations from esteemed guests Dr. Dhanya, Dr. Nisar, and Dr. Jesna, who each appreciated the efforts of the organizers and encouraged continuous community support.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Amrutha, a postgraduate student, who expressed gratitude to all participants, volunteers, and attendees for their contributions and support.

Overall, the Thanal Charity Program was a success, achieving its goal of providing aid to those in need and reinforcing the importance of social responsibility among the college community.
