

MES Asmabi College, P Vemballur

Report of the Intercollegiate Literary Quiz Competition conducted by Research Department of English, Quiz Club and IQAC

The Research Department of English, Quiz Club and IQAC of MES Asmabi College hosted an 'Intercollegiate Literary Quiz Competition' that showcased the literary knowledge of the participants from various esteemed institutions of the district. The event was organized on 20th June 2024 in connection with the 'Reading Week Observation: Turning Pages; Igniting Minds' with the aim of promoting literary awareness and fostering intellectual engagement among the students.

The quiz was conducted by Dr. Amitha P. Mani, Assistant Professor of English and Dr. Sanand Sadanandan, Quiz Club Coordinator. Teams from ten colleges enthusiastically participated in the event, demonstrating their knowledge across various genres of literature including poetry, drama, fiction, and literary history. The quiz comprised multiple rounds designed to test the participants' understanding of literary works, authors, literary terms, and critical analysis. Each round featured intriguing questions that required quick thinking and deep literary insight. The quiz also garnered significant interest from students and faculty alike, who actively participated as audience engaging in discussions about the questions and answers.

The teams from Sri Achutha Menon Government College, Thrissur and S N College Nattika bagged the first and second prizes respectively. The event not only celebrated the literary talents of the participants but also reinforced the importance of literature in academia.

The feedback from the participants emphasise that the event was capable of enhancing the literary excellence and nurture a passion for literature and motivation to read further.

