

MES ASMABI COLLEGE, P. VEMBALLUR

FINE ARTS CLUB

FINE ARTS DAY CELEBRATION 14/2/2024 - 15/2/2024

MES Asmabi College celebrated its Fine Arts Day on the 14th and 15th of February, transforming the campus into a hub of creativity and cultural vibrancy. The event featured a wide array of competitions, both individual and group, with students showcasing their talents across 75 different items. The competitions were held on an association-wise basis, with students from the Science, Commerce, Arts, and B.Voc associations participating. The events spanned various categories, including dance, music, drama, literary arts, and fine arts. Each performance was a testament to the students' dedication and talent.

Science Association bagged 1st prize

Traditional and contemporary dance forms were showcased, with groups and solo dancers captivating the audience. Solo and group singing competitions featured a range of genres, from classical to modern. Skits and plays, often with social messages, demonstrated the students' acting skills and creativity. Poetry recitations, essay writing, and debates highlighted the literary prowess of the participants. Painting, sculpture, and craft competitions displayed the artistic talents of the students.

The competition was intense, but the Science Association emerged victorious with an impressive 142 points. The Arts Association followed closely, securing the second place with 124 points.

Winners:

- First Place: Science Association (142 points)
- Second Place: Arts Association (124 points)

The winners were celebrated in a closing ceremony, where they were awarded trophies and certificates in recognition of their outstanding performances.

The Fine Arts Day celebration at MES Asmabi College was a resounding success, providing a platform for students to express their creativity and talents. The event not only showcased the diverse skills of the students but also fostered a sense of camaraderie and healthy competition among the various associations. The dedication and hard work of the participants, along with the support of the faculty and organizers, ensured the event was memorable and inspiring.