

Film Review Competition Report

Date: 13/02/2024

Organizer: Film Club

Participants: 18 Students

Introduction:

The Film Club recently organized a film review competition, which saw enthusiastic participation from 18 students. The event aimed to foster critical thinking and appreciation for cinematic artistry while providing a platform for students to express their opinions on a selected short film. The chosen short film for the competition was "Nitishastra," a Hindi short film that likely presented a compelling narrative and thematic elements for analysis. The selection of a Hindi film reflects the diversity and inclusivity within the club, catering to a wide range of cultural backgrounds and interests among the participants.

Participant Engagement:

The competition witnessed active engagement from the participants, who displayed their analytical skills and creativity in evaluating various aspects of "Nitishastra." From cinematography to storytelling techniques, participants delved into the intricacies of the film, offering insightful perspectives and critiques.

Judging Process:

The judging process involved assessing the participants' reviews based on criteria such as originality, coherence, depth of analysis, and overall presentation. The panel of judges likely evaluated each review meticulously, recognizing the effort and thought put into the evaluations.

Winner Announcement:

After careful deliberation, a winner was selected based on the quality of their review and the depth of insight demonstrated. The announcement of the winner likely served as a moment of recognition for the participant's dedication and passion for cinema.

Outcome:

The film review competition, centered around the short film "Nitishastra," served as a platform for students to engage critically with cinematic artistry and storytelling. Through thoughtful analysis and discussion, participants showcased their appreciation for film as a medium of expression and exploration. The event not only fostered a deeper understanding of cinema but also highlighted the talent and creativity within the Film Club community.

Coordinators
Mynag Suresh

Joint Coordinators
Mona VM
Najma Nazeer