

MES ASMABI COLLEGE

DEPARTMENT OF DIGITAL FILM PRODUCTION

2024-25 ACADEMIC YEAR

ASMABI'S LIGHTHOUSE INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL (ALIFF) 2025- REPORT

Report

VENUE: PREVIEW THEATRE, AUDITORIUM

DATE: FEB 11,12,13 2025 PARTICIPATION: 1114

The Asmabi's Lighthouse International Film Festival (ALIFF) 2025 commenced with a grand inauguration on February 11, 2025, at 11:00 AM at MES Asmabi College. The event was graced by renowned actress Prayaga Martin as the chief guest, who officially marked the beginning of three days of cinematic celebrations. The inauguration set an enthusiastic tone for the festival, bringing together cinephiles, filmmakers, and students eager to immerse themselves in the world of cinema.

ALIFF 2025 showcased a diverse selection of films, with a total of 20 feature films and one documentary being screened. The lineup included international films, thought-provoking documentaries, and engaging Malayalam short films, catering to a wide audience with varied cinematic interests.

The screenings provided a platform for filmmakers to present their work while allowing audiences to experience different cultures and storytelling techniques from around the world.

In addition to film screenings, the festival hosted discussions and interactive sessions featuring filmmakers and industry professionals. These sessions served as an opportunity for aspiring filmmakers and cinema enthusiasts to engage in meaningful conversations about the art and craft of filmmaking. One of the highlights of ALIFF 2025 was a special tribute dedicated to the legendary Malayalam writer M.T. Vasudevan Nair, honoring his invaluable contributions to literature and cinema.

Outcome

ALIFF 2025 proved to be a resounding success, fostering an engaging and immersive cinematic experience for attendees. With a total participation of 1,114 individuals, the festival demonstrated its growing influence and appeal among cinephiles, students, and filmmakers. The carefully curated selection of 20 feature films and one documentary provided audiences with diverse storytelling perspectives, enriching their appreciation for global cinema.

One of the key outcomes of the festival was the platform it provided for filmmakers to showcase their work and interact with audiences. The interactive sessions and discussions with industry professionals facilitated knowledge exchange, offering aspiring filmmakers valuable insights into the art of filmmaking. This intellectual engagement strengthened ALIFF's role as an important cultural and educational event for film enthusiasts.

NAME OF COORDINATOR

RASIDHA MS (FACULTY)
 PRASOON TP (FACULTY)
 MANEESHA K (FACULTY)