Release of Manuscript Magazine, 'Elegant Epistles'

The manuscript magazine of the department, 'Elegant Epistles' was released on 24th March 2025. Ms Lubna Fathima, I BA English contributed the entire articles in the magazine, named it and prepared it. Other students contributed to yet another manuscript magazine, refine their writing abilities. Through the poetry, essays, stories and critical analyses, the act of writing for publication encouraged the students to pay attention to imaginative writing, style, grammar, and structure. It allowed students to express their creativity in a public format, through writing fiction and non-fiction. This creativity contributes to their personal satisfaction and confidence in their abilities. Editing and contributing articles encouraged students to think critically about literature, societal issues, and various topics. Engaging with different genres and writing styles fosters deeper literary analysis and an appreciation for diverse voices.
