

MES ASMABI COLLEGE, P VEMBALLUR

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

Report on the Send-Off Ceremony – 'CIAO CAMARADA'

Date: March 7, 2025

Venue: [MG06]

The Department of English bid a heartfelt farewell to the outgoing III BA English batch on March 7, 2025, through a grand send-off ceremony titled CIAO CAMARADA. The event, held at the third English classroom, was a poignant yet joyous occasion that celebrated the journey of the graduating students and their contributions to the department.

The program commenced with a welcome address by the Association Secretary, who extended warm wishes to the students embarking on new adventures. The Principal and H. o D, Dr. Reena Mohammed delivered an inspiring speech, acknowledging the achievements of the outgoing batch and encouraging them to carry forward the values and knowledge acquired during their time at the institution.

A series of cultural performances, including musical renditions, poetry recitations, and skits, enlivened the atmosphere, showcasing the vibrant talents of both the graduating students and their juniors. A nostalgic video montage highlighting memorable moments from the past three years was also presented, evoking emotions and fond reminiscences among the attendees.

Faculty members shared words of encouragement, reminiscing about their experiences with the batch and offering invaluable guidance for their future endeavors. In response, representatives from the outgoing batch expressed their gratitude towards the faculty and institution, reflecting on their transformative journey and cherished memories. The send-off, CIAO CAMARADA, was a perfect blend of nostalgia, gratitude, and celebration, marking the end of an era and the beginning of new journeys for the III BA English students.

