The Women Development Cell (WDC) of MES Asmabi College was formally inaugurated on 24 June 2026 at 10.30 a.m. in the New Seminar Hall. The programme was organized with the objective of launching the activities of the Cell and unveiling its official name and logo. The cell also observed The international Day of Women in Diplomacy .The event was graced by Ms. Sree Resmi, Founder of Koottu Community, as the Chief Guest.

The programme commenced with a warm welcome to the dignitaries, faculty members, and students. The Principal, Dr. Sameena Kalathodi, presided over the function and highlighted the significance of the Women Development Cell in promoting gender equality, leadership, and empowerment among students.

The inauguration was formally carried out by Ms. Sree Resmi, who delivered an inspiring address emphasizing the importance of women's empowerment, self-confidence, and community engagement. Her motivating words encouraged students to become active agents of social change.

A major highlight of the programme was the Name Revealing and Logo Launching Ceremony. After careful consideration of several suggestions, the Women Development Cell was officially named “Jwaala”, symbolizing strength, enlightenment, courage, and the transformative power of women. The name was suggested by Dr. Rameena of the Department of Commerce, whose contribution was acknowledged and appreciated during the event. The official logo of Jwaala was also unveiled by the Chief Guest, marking the beginning of a new chapter in the activities of the Women Development Cell.

The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from 100 students, along with faculty members and staff. The audience actively engaged in the proceedings and expressed great enthusiasm for the initiatives planned under the banner of Jwaala. The day observation was followed by an active interactive session.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Ms. Shiji Ibrahim U, Coordinator of the Women Development Cell, who expressed gratitude to the Chief Guest, Principal, faculty members, students, and organizing committee for their support and cooperation in making the programme a grand success.

The inauguration and unveiling of Jwaala marked a significant milestone in the college's commitment to fostering women's empowerment, leadership, and social responsibility.
